DEDICATION

It is with deepest appreciation and admiration that we dedicate our Shield to you, "Oh, Best Beloved".

That incomparable sense of humor and warm friendliness will always be remembered by those of us who have had the privilege of knowing you.

More than these, we shall never cease to be grateful to you for the inspiration we have received from your outstanding teaching ability.

MISS RUTH JENKINS
Headmistress

"The primal duties shine aloft, like stars;
The charities that sooth, and heal and bless
Are scattered at our feet, like flowers,
The generous inclination, the just rule,
Kind wishes, good acts, and a merry heart;
No mystery is here!"

Wordsworth.

The Right Reverend
STEPHEN FIELDING BAYNE, Jr.

"Happy is he who bears within himself a God, an ideal of beauty, and who obeys it; ideal of art, ideal of science, ideal of country, ideal of the simple virtues. These are the living wells of great thoughts and great actions. All of them reflect light from the Infinite."

Louis Pasteur.

MAY DAY...

At last we come to the culmination of our Seminary life — graduation. Through the smiles and tears of the excitement of the day we look to you, dear Annie, with thoughts of great gratitude and love.

Our love has been expressed by the exuberance of our first dash up our senior stairs, by the scolding of our proctors, by the panic of our search for the spade, by our shouts at the hockey games, by our frantic preparation for exams, by the loveliness of May Day, by the reverence of our chapel service, by a moment of awe as we look at the building and campus in its splendor and beauty. For these we thank you.

We thank you for the privilege of learning amid the friendship and spirit you have provided, of living under your Shield of high ideals. We thank you, Annie, for instilling in us that friendship, your spirit and high ideals, so that we, too, have a shield to protect us through all our lives.

Good-bye, Annie. May we all go forth from Strength to Strength.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee our ALMA MATER,
Seminary fair,
May achievements crown thy Labors,
Is our earnest prayer.

Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou art reared above,
May the characters thou' moldest
Hold thee in their Love.

Pure as yonder snow-clad mountains
Where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow
Answer to thy call.

Hearts turned toward our ALMA MATER
May our Lives at Length
Prove thy daughters beafty M<sup>OT</sup>TO,
"On from Strength to Strength."
